

AUTO ACCIDENTS

THREE IN GLENDALE YESTERDAY WITH NO FATAL RESULTS

There were three auto accidents in Glendale yesterday, all resulting in damage to machines and one to a driver. Two of these were at Brand and Colorado. In one of them two machines approaching each other on Colorado collided, one driven by Geo. Dolkert of Los Angeles, whose car had the radiator, one front light and the right fender damaged. The other car had a broken fender. In the other collision at Brand and Colorado, John Rallsback's taxi and a vegetable truck came together with considerable force. The truck had a broken radiator.

The third accident was at Glendale and Wilson avenues, close to the noon hour. Two Fords, one driven by Griffith Condren of Los Angeles and the other by J. P. Anderson of La Canada, met at right angles and Condren's was turned over. He was badly cut and at first thought to be fatally hurt, and the L. G. Scovern ambulance hastily summoned, but it was found that he had suffered only skin cuts. He was taken to the Sanitarium and plastered up.

Hurt by Fall

J. F. Schnieder of Pasadena was riding a mechanically propelled bicycle south on Verdugo Road yesterday and when crossing Wilson avenue his vehicle was overturned by striking some obstacle, throwing the rider to the ground with considerable violence. He was picked up and taken to Dr. Young's office where he was found to have one arm broken and his face considerably cut. He was patched up and later his son, who had been notified by phone, came over in an auto and took him home.

Band Concert Tonight

Dru Nicles, chairman of the Tractor Show entertainment committee, has secured the American Legion Band of Los Angeles to give a concert on the streets of Glendale tonight. It is expected that many Glendale people as well as Tractor Show visitors will enjoy this music.

PADELFORDS SELL

DISPOSE OF FINE HOME ON FAIRVIEW—WILL GO SOON TO ARIZONA

J. Fred Padelford and wife have sold their beautiful home at 335 Fairview avenue for a cash consideration of $6300. The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weiser, are wealthy Easterners who were attracted to Glendale by its pleasing location and its substantial institutions. Mr. and Mrs. Padelford will leave in about three weeks for Perona, Arizona, where the two sons, Carlton and Emerson, are developing land in the Salt River Valley cotton country. They expect to remain there about a month to oversee the drilling of a well and the subsequent installing of engine, pump and electric dynamo to irrigate at least 160 acres. They will then return to Glendale and stay till cotton planting time, in March. The Padelfords have been residents of Glendale for 13 years and lived in the home just sold 10 years.

Mrs. Padelford wrote the Evening News yesterday as follows: "Enclosed please find check for 6 months' subscription to Evening News. Leave at present address till notified. No matter where we go we couldn't possibly get along without your clean, interesting home paper."

STEEB RECITAL

NOTED PIANISTE TO APPEAR IN GLENDALE FRIDAY EVENING

Olga Steeb, the noted pianiste, will appear in an interesting joint comparison recital with the Knabe Ampico Reproducing Piano at the Glendale High School auditorium Friday evening, September 24th.

This recital will be held under the auspices of the Fitzgerald Music Company, and is given exclusively for the students of the Glendale High School and their friends.

The strong impression made by Miss Steeb in a similar recital held in Glendale last June is still vivid in the minds of the hundreds of Glendale people who heard her at that time, and the recital at the High School auditorium is looked forward to with the keenest expectations.

TRACTORS' USES

DISPLAY ENLIGHTENING AS TO GASOLINE POWER'S VERSATILITY IN DEVELOPMENT

Tractors and the part they are playing in the development of the agricultural potentialities of the great Southwest's far flung agricultural and horticultural activities are well defined in the show being held in Verdugo Woodlands this week.

While the show is national from the viewpoint of manufacture, practically all of the exhibits make an appeal to the ranchers of the Western states, many of whom have come thousands of miles to witness what these massive machines will do.

In fact, the needs of cotton planters, the bean and beet growers and the orchardist have come in for especial attention on the part of the manufacturers of not only the tractors but the implements which are integral parts of the varied agricultural industries.

Tractor wheels and tracks are now set so as to run between the rows of cotton, to tread lightly over fields of beet or roll easily under the lowest branches of orchard and lemon trees.

Then there are small tractors for vegetable garden work or lighter farm work and large tractors for breaking virgin soil. Some of the machines have wheels with sharp points to guarantee pulling power. Others have treads especially adapted to irrigated fields while others are made to mow along through mud or sand undisturbed.

With the tractor and implement exhibits are many modern appliances of the farm, such as milkers for the dairies, washing machine attachments, ensilage choppers and a hundred or more other essentials to farm life of 1920.

And all of these modern appliances, from the monarch of the tractors on down to the milking machine are dependent on the power derived from oil. It is truly a gasoline age for the farmer and the versatility with which engines are applied to every conceivable sort of mechanical device—all developed within the lifetime of the rancher of today—one can but wonder what tomorrow has in store.

Probably within another score of years, the rancher will sit on his front porch, magazine in hand, radio key nearby and like the air torpedoes and warships of today, his tractor will automatically plow and plant or cultivate at his wireless command. Such is a dream of the future brought to one's mind by the rapid strides evidenced in improvements over old methods as seen at the National Tractor Show.

MURPHY WINS AUTO

LONG BEACH MAN, PAST EXALTED RULER, GETS MACHINE DRAWN AT ELKS' HALL

Last spring the Glendale Elks decided to dispose of a Studebaker Light Six automobile in such a manner that they might have a couple of thousand dollars, which money they would use to defray expenses of their patrol team at the state meeting at Sacramento this fall. The sale of tickets having closed last night, the numbers were placed in a large sack, at the close of the regular Monday night meeting at Elks' Hall, and Miss Dorothy Snowden, a ten-year-old lass, was delegated as the one to draw the numbers from the bag.

Before the drawing started, it was announced that the thirteenth number drawn would be the lucky one. The numbers drawn were as follows: 1618, 942, 2608, 1365, 3760, 1334, 511, 3828, 3295, 2605, 1502, 2755, 509.

Five hundred nine was the thirteenth, and that number was held by C. D. Murphy of Long Beach, so the announcement was made that Mr. Murphy, who is a Past Exalted Ruler of the Elks' Lodge of Long Beach, was the winner of the Studebaker automobile, which had been purchased from the Packer & White Auto Company, Glendale.

Foster Bridge Club

The Foster Bridge Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. M. V. Tresslar, 320 West Lexington Drive. The prize for top score, a hand-embroidered guests' towel, was won by Mrs. John Robert White. Ices and cake were served the guests, who were Mesdames Lester Jones, Helen Campbell, George Kelsey, John Robert White, Maurice Bondeaux and C. E. Norton, also Mrs. Hilliard of Los Angeles.

ELIMINATE PROFITEERING

COX URGES PLACING HUGE FUND IN HANDS OF PRESIDENT TO PURCHASE FOOD SUPPLIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—Elimination of profiteering by "moral force" through a huge revolving fund placed in the hands of the president, with authority to purchase supplies to prevent extortionate prices, was suggested by Governor Cox today. He had previously suggested its application to sugar buying, and has now decided it would be well to extend its use to other commodities.

The Mexican question was expected to come to the forefront as Governor Cox travels eastward through Arizona and New Mexico. Cox's personal view is that the United States should cooperate with the new Mexican government in its effort to establish itself, and extend formal recognition when it has given proof of stability.

Cox was slated for numerous brief talks today, among them a non-partisan address before the Southern California Editorial Association, and speeches at Long Beach, and before a meeting of women's organizations here. He was slated for a brief visit to the movie colony at Hollywood just prior to his departure at 2 o'clock.

MACREADY'S ULTIMATUM

SAYS GOVERNMENT IS READY TO DRIVE ALL KNOWN TERRORISTS OUT OF IRELAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, Ireland, Sept. 21.—General Macready, commanding the British forces in Ireland, today intimated that the government is considering driving all "known terrorists, who are making all the trouble, out of Ireland."

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The 40th day of fasting of Lord Mayor MacSwiney showed little change in his condition. Sinn Fein bulletins reported him very weak. Sinn Fein leaders were indignant over reports that they had hidden MacSwiney's real condition and that he had been fed.

The Evening News today said that MacSwiney was surprisingly well, and able to sit up and read newspapers.

An appeal to hunger strikers to break their strike was issued by the Irish offices today. There is no chance for their release, the statement said.

AWAIT PREDICTED EXPLOSION

CROWDS GATHER NEAR CUSTOMS HOUSE AS HOUR SET FOR BOMB DISCHARGE NEARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—A nervous, expectant throng lined the streets along the Custom House just before 2 o'clock this afternoon—the hour set for the explosion predicted yesterday in a postcard addressed to Customs Collector Edwards. Inside the building, except for a heavy guard, everything was normal.

Hundreds of persons were in Bowling Green before the Customs building. The crowd was kept back by soldiers and sailors with rifles and fixed bayonets. Visitors were admitted to the Custom House only on proof of legitimate business.

Window space in tall buildings in lower Manhattan was at a premium.

Edwin Fisher was today ordered placed in Bellevue Hospital, for observation. Police and county investigators declared he was insane.

RACE DISTURBANCES IN CHICAGO

BLACK BELT IN STATE OF SIEGE FOLLOWING OUTBREAK BETWEEN NEGROES AND WHITES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Chicago's "black belt" was in a state of siege today with two police battalions on duty, following race disturbances last night which caused the death of one man and serious injury to eight others. The outbreak began when a negro wielding a knife nearly decapitated Thomas Barrett, white, and reached a climax when 5000 angered whites demanded the surrender of three negroes within the St. Gabriel's church. The negroes were finally spirited away by detectives.

Packing houses employing both white and negro help were given additional guards to prevent further outbreaks today.

Although the north side was quiet today, police expected renewed trouble tonight.

HANDLEY'S DRIVER MISSING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LODI, Cal., Sept. 21.—A coroner's inquest over the body of Lorin A. Handley, prohibition director and prominent California Democrat, who was killed in an automobile accident near here last night, will be held tonight.

A. C. Devine, driver of Handley's machine, was reported missing today. Devine last night told authorities here that his machine had been crowded off the road by an automobile which failed to stop.

Handley's neck was broken. He was en route to Sacramento to preside at the Democratic state convention.

SHOW SIDELIGHTS

NOVEL DISPLAYS LEND BEAUTY TO IMPLEMENT EXHIBITS; F. P. NEWPORT CO. PRAISED

There are many interesting sidelights to the Tractor Show which the casual observer will note with a deal of pleasure.

Among the many are motion pictures of the Utilitor tractor in operation, the Yankee valveless motor, the Standard Oil company's demonstration of lubrication in which exposed gears and cutaway glass-plated engines minutely show the action of oil, several battery charging exhibits where "juice" is created by engine-driven generators, air cleaners, and much other equipment of a similar nature.

Among the many beautiful booths which lend grace to the grounds are those of the J. I. Case Tractor company and the F. P. Newport company, agent for Selvas de Verdugo, or Verdugo Woodlands as it is more commonly known.

F. P. Newport, himself, is at the show daily directing the representatives of his concern in showing the desirability of this Glendale property. W. L. Twining, general manager for Mr. Newport, is also there, assisted by Mr. Horton, while the corps of salesmen who are showing the Woodlands scenic spots to the Tractor Show visitors include the Messrs. DeMars, Sperry, Robinson, Huddle, MacFarland, Fleming, Stephens, Dewitt and Colonel Bush and others.

From every hand come praises for the beautiful park surroundings of the show. It was through the personal effort of Mr. Newport, in making generous arrangements for accommodations, that the attention of Southern California Tractor and Implement Dealers' Association officials was drawn to Glendale.

In praise of Mr. Newport's work, Guy H. Hall, general manager of the show, made the following comment this morning:

"F. P. Newport has done wonderfully well by us in helping to prepare the grounds and it gives me a great deal of satisfaction to think of the good treatment accorded our show by the land company. Their co-operation and generous actions in the arrangements make me feel very grateful."

LIBERTY BONDS

ONLY 53 PER CENT OF FIRST THREE ISSUES EXCHANGED FOR INTEREST BEARING

It will be remembered by purchasers of the three first issues of Liberty Bonds that the bonds were issued with only four interest coupons attached, sufficient for two years' interest, the government announcing that this was necessary on account of the great need of the money at once, and that new bonds would be issued in lieu of them before these four coupons expired. The new bonds with all the coupons attached, have been ready for many months, as was announced in The Evening News months ago, and still only 53 per cent of the original issue of these bonds has been turned in for redemption. Yet the owners have been warned that no further interest will be paid until the exchange has been made. All holders of bonds of the first three issues should no longer delay taking them to the banks for exchange for the new coupon-bearing issue, says Mr. Vesper of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank, Glendale branch, if they expect to draw any future interest on them. September 15 was set as the limit of time for making the exchange but the banks are still holding the offer open.

District C. E.

The Glendale District Christian Endeavor Union has reorganized with the following officers: President, Nancy St. Clair; first vice, C. C. Stoller; second vice, L. Griswold; secretary, Martha Eilers; treasurer, Lowell Donnell, and intermediate superintendent, Carol Duncan. The former president, Ray Krug, resigned, because of leaving for San Anselmo where he will enter the seminary and prepare for the ministry. Others of the Union also resigned and a complete reorganization was effected. The new officers are already making plans for some very definite steps towards the bringing together of all the societies in this district in one bond of fellowship in the work together.

BURSON-MOTT

GLENDALE COUPLE WEDDED YESTERDAY AT HIGH NOON

A marriage of much interest to the people of Glendale took place Monday when Miss Cynthia B. Mott, beautiful young daughter of Mrs. Velleda B. Mott, 406 Oak street, was united in marriage to Harold H. Burson, a prosperous young contractor of Glendale.

The young people, accompanied by the bride's eldest brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Mott, of Los Angeles, motored at high noon to the manse, where the ring ceremony was performed, Rev. Walter E. Edmonds officiating.

The bride was charming in a traveling dress of midnight blue. They left immediately for a brief honeymoon in the mountains, and on their return will be at home in apartments at 106 East Broadway.

Mrs. Burson has been employed for some time in Los Angeles.

Knights Templar Picnic

The Glendale Knights Templar vary the routine of work with a monthly picnic or entertainment of some kind and last Saturday was the time for this event to come off. So at about 3 o'clock many Knights and their families gathered at the Masonic Temple and started in a body by auto to Brookside Park, taking with them baskets of eatables, including wienies in profusion. These latter, when supper time came, were roasted and occupied the places of honor on the bountifully spread tables. A pleasant hour was spent about the festive board and then the homeward trip was taken in the cool of the evening. About 100 were present.

From Far Japan

H. Finlay and family of 626 North Isabel street, had the pleasure of entertaining over Saturday and Sunday, Saburo Uchirama, M. E., who is acquainted with and has worked with Mr. Finlay's sister in Japan. Mr. Uchirama is a graduate of the University of Fukuoka, Japan, and is now on his way to Urbana, Ill., where he will enter the University of Illinois to take up the study of engineering. On his way he will stop in Chicago and spend a few days with his brother who is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in that city. Mr. Uchirama is a devoted Christian and enjoyed church services in Glendale on Sunday.

Will Have Good Music

Captain D. Ripley Jackson, leader of the choir in St. Mark's Episcopal church says that now vacation time is over practice has been resumed and prospects are bright for excellent music. Opportunely, a young lady, Miss Nettie Campbell, who recently moved to Glendale, proved to be an excellent organist and she now presides at the new Estey two-manual imitation pipe organ, which was installed only last month.

Three Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnston of 530 Oak street entertained a few friends Monday evening in honor of three birthdays in the family, one that of Mr. Johnston himself and the other two those of the daughter, Mrs. Edith Hague, and the son, Ellwood. Games were played and refreshments served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Sickels and son, Mr. and Mrs. Kensel and son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hague and Harry Lindstrom.

PAST 90 YEARS

LOUIS CASH, VISITOR IN GLENDALE, FATHER OF 21 CHILDREN, 14 YET LIVING

Louis Cash of Northern Utah was in Glendale Sunday to visit Walter Cash, whose great-great-uncle he is. He had stopped in Los Angeles to see a great-grandnephew, Geo. Cash, and thought to run out to see Walter and his mother and grandmother. He went from here to San Diego to spend the winter with a daughter.

Mr. Cash is past 90 years of age, has been married twice and was the father of 21 children, 19 of whom lived to pass their majority. Fourteen of them still survive. When Mr. Cash celebrated his 90th birthday last spring all of them were present, coming from Louisiana, Texas, California, Kentucky and half a dozen other states.

CONTEST CLOSES

FRIENDLY RIVALRY OF STATES IN CHRISTIAN S. S. BOOSTS
ATTENDANCE

The contest of states in the Bible school of Central Christian church which has completely done away with the usual summer slump in attendance came to an end Sunday when a roll-call of the states was made by Supt. Willard Learned to learn the representation of each. The name of every one of the 48 states was called and a large majority of them were found to be represented. Illinois led, however, with 20, Missouri came next with 16, then Iowa with 11, Kansas with 9 and so on. It was announced that a goal had been set for October of a 25 per cent increase in attendance and offerings.

Rev. Cole's morning subject was "Don't Rock the Boat" and the text was rather a quaint one from Proverbs: "Where there are no oxen the crib is clean" (empty). He spoke of the need of keeping everlastingly at it in the Christian life and of setting a perfect example to the young people who are coming on to fill the places of the present members of the churches. "If I believed the world was growing worse I would quit preaching," said the minister. "But it is not," he continued, "the young people are just as earnest today as in our time and the church is growing stronger. Do not shake the faith of the young by dire predictions of evil times to come, but ever hold up before them the way of the cross." Mrs. Floyd Mercer's beautiful solo was the special musical number. The evening sermon subject was "Fighting the Devil," with a special reference to the pitfalls that are ever before the young even in as clean a city as Glendale. The special musical number was a very pleasing solo by Miss Elizabeth Mottern.

P-T. A. FEDERATION

MRS. WHITE PRESIDES AT FIRST MEETING OF THE SEASON

The Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations held their first meeting of the season Monday afternoon at the Intermediate school. Mrs. John Robert White, the president, presiding. The main feature of the afternoon's program was an address by Superintendent Richardson D. White on "Patriotism."

Mrs. White introduced her chairman for the coming year and the advisability of raising the P-T. A. dues was discussed at length, but no action taken.

After a short social period during which punch was served the meeting adjourned.

A Retrospect

It is remarkable how soon a healthy wound heals. The second winter's snow will soon be falling upon Chateau-Thierry, and the vines that clustered about the naked wooden crosses the first spring have fastened their roots firmly in the dust of the immortal sleepers. Two years ago how different it all was—the big guns, but we know all that. Today there is a peace on all the sacred hills of France that never was there before. The hills that are corrugated with bleak planks nailed at right angles are rocking themselves to slumber again as the autumn winds sweep over them.

A little old lady that lives down the street from almost anybody is going to the store as usual, buying her table's need, chatting with the neighbors about the amount of sugar she puts in watermelon preserve, or making a pair of pants for little Harold, aged eight, out of Jimmy's overcoat.

Sometimes she dusts off Jimmy's picture that hangs in the parlor, showing him in camp before he went across the sea. Everyone who sees the picture is afraid to speak to the little old lady about it, she is so happy about her little tasks which she performs so thoroughly and cheerfully.

As we said before, it is remarkable how soon a healthy wound heals. It seems as though the world is glad for the returning spring-time and tries to forget the leaves that fell in the early storms of winter.

A lot of male voters, somewhat careless in dress, will probably feel like "sprucing up" a bit this fall.

A pussyfooting candidate is one who slips through the back door to cajole the cook into voting for him.

Even the most casual knowledge of anatomy will show that nature gave most men considerably more lungs than brains.

The failures in marriage would not be so noticeable if the persons involved were not so noisy about it.

There is not much to be said for the citizen who is just as good as the law compels him to be.

About the biggest bore imaginable is the man who goes around imparting information for which no one cares.

LENDALE

Romance has attended this fair section of the South since the long-ago, that happy, care-free era of California's history when the site of our now thriving city was a part of the big land grant given by the king of Spain to the Verdugo family, up to this day when many who are living in less-favored sections of the country are turning their eyes Glendaleward and planning and longing to make their homes in this garden spot, the city that has made the largest per cent of growth of any municipality in the land, with no industrial incentive, its great attraction being its right to the title, "City of Homes."

Believing that many of you who are our guests this week will consider becoming residents of Glendale we offer these few facts that we think will be of interest to you.

Glendale is especially favored as to location. Her charming setting in the foothills with the higher ranges of mountains rising above is often commented upon. Her proximity to Los Angeles, being distant only a half hour's ride by trolley is an advantage that is not to be overlooked. Two main boulevards lead from the larger city and another shorter road is now being paved. Glendale's altitude of 600 feet; her clear air and delightful climate tempered by breezes from the Pacific that find access through the Ivanhoe Pass; her proximity to the beaches and mountains are all features that add to the delight of living here.

Glendale's municipal government is organized with special reference to the needs of a rapidly-growing city. There are branches to care for any problem that might arise in such a city, all under the care of a City Manager, acting under the direction of the Board of Trustees. There is a department of public utilities, a department for the improvement and maintenance of streets, a health department that is watchful of sanitary and health conditions, well-organized police and fire departments, and a forestry department devoted to the propagation of trees for parkway planting, and to the care of trees already growing in parkways.

Living costs in Southern California are lower than elsewhere in the United States according to those who come here from other sections. Glendale enjoys this natural advantage along with her sister cities and in addition she has the distinction of furnishing electricity and water at a lower rate than any other city in California. This is due to the fact that the municipality several years ago purchased these utilities and organized a department of public service which has been conducted in a way to give the people the best possible service at the lowest possible rate consistent with good business. The people have never been taxed for the purchase of these utilities, the department being managed in such a way that it has been able to pay off all indebtedness as it became due.

Glendale's growth has astonished even her own people. Twenty years ago Glendale was not an incorporated city and hence does not appear in the census figures of that year, but those who lived here then say the population could not have been more than a few hundred. In 1910 the census report gives Glendale a population of 2742 and in 1920, 13,536, an increase of 393 per cent. Making an estimate from the registration of voters we know that Glendale's population today is in the neighborhood of 20,000. From the water and light connections that are being made it has been determined that the population is increasing at the rate of 5000 a year and figuring on the basis of a population of 20,000 this means an increase of 25 per cent a year.

In July of this year Glendale was sixth among California cities in the value of building permits issued, the order being Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Long Beach, Pasadena, Glendale, Pasadena's lead over Glendale being less than $33,000. Glendale's figure was $302,970 giving her the proud record of doing more building in proportion to her population than any city in the United States. In August of this year Glendale's building permits totalled $515,078 and during the first fifteen days of September permits amounted to $260,785. The total building in Glendale since the close of the war or from January 1, 1919 to September 15, 1920, totals $2,680,633.

Glendale is known everywhere as a clean town, her broad paved streets being the marvel of all visitors. Brand Boulevard, a paved street 120 feet in width extends through the center of the city from the mountains to the city limits of Los Angeles, a distance of 2.9 miles. Being jealous of the reputation of the city, Glendale people very generally keep their premises in neat condition. When lot owners are non-resident or for any other reason are careless in this respect the city looks after cleaning the weeds from the property.

In educational progress our city is not backward. A fine high school, ten grade schools in various sections of the city, and a church school take care of the needs of the young, while two city libraries are well patronized. Glendale has one of the largest woman's clubs in the state and other clubs, lodges and fraternal organizations thrive here. Two splendid new hospital buildings are now in course of construction.

Glendale is a clean city, morally. It is essentially a church town, nearly all denominations being represented. There has always been a determined effort on the part of the people as a whole to exclude anything that would tend to lower the moral tone of the community.

We welcome you, visitors to the Tractor Show and invite you to become residents of Glendale. If that is impossible, at least come again.

Tokio Plans Stadium

TOKIO, Aug. 19. (By Mail.)—In order that she may take a commanding place in athletic events in the Orient, particularly the Oriental Olympic sports, Tokio is building a vast athletic park and stadium at a cost of more than a million yen. The track will be larger than the Olympic Track in Stockholm, and great care has been exercised in the planning thereof, this being in charge of experts who were sent to Europe to study the best features of tracks there. The tracks will include one of 400 yards and another of 200 yards, but the original plan to include a baseball diamond was abandoned, it being common opinion that the two features cannot be successfully combined.

On the west side of the field will be an inclined grassy slope, which will be able to accommodate some 40,000 spectators, while on the east side will be a grandstand with seats for 15,000 spectators. Inside this stand will be dressing and bath rooms, dining halls and even dormitories for visiting teams. Work on leveling the grounds has already begun, and it is expected that the entire structure will be completed by 1923.

Many a person would bankrupt himself if he tried to sweeten his disposition at the prevailing prices.

It might help to humble many a man if he would reflect on whether his wife would enjoy being a widow.

The ladies in charge of the Tuesday Afternoon Club's refreshment stand on the lot just north of the Evening News office, had everything so tastefully arranged and the home-made cakes looked so good, yesterday afternoon, that the editor of the Evening News could not resist indulging in a round of ice cream and cake, which were found to be so good that he invited the entire working force, including carrier boys, twenty-six persons in all, to follow the pleasant example he had set. The Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital

Here in Glendale, in one of the loveliest and most fertile valleys of the South, in the shadow of the everlasting hills, stands the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital where the suffering find health; where the tired or depressed business man or woman comes for a "rest-vacation" and goes away refreshed and strengthened and with increased efficiency and new ambition; and where the well are taught how to keep well.

Knowing that environment plays a large part in the treatment of disease we have provided here a comfortable retreat for the ailing in a quiet, restful, optimistic atmosphere, in surroundings that are comfortable and interesting.

The value of spending a few weeks under such conditions can only be estimated by those who have been restored, who have experienced sound, refreshing sleep after nights of sleeplessness, who know the satisfaction of a good digestion, a clear head, increased energy and that sense of mental and physical buoyancy that makes life worth while—in other words those who have been restored to sound health which means the perfect functioning of every organ of the body and makes living a joy and brings efficiency, usefulness and happiness.

NEW BUILDING OF THE GLENDALE SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL, THE FIRST UNIT OF WHICH IS NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

This institution is founded on the principle that nature alone can cure; that health, like disease, must come gradually by a process of growth and change; that at all times the body is working to maintain health and strength and when pain or disorder appears the proper functioning of the body is being prevented. This we correct and so put the body in a position to heal itself.

Are you tired, ill or sorrowing? Would you come here for treatment or rest? Your case will be given individual attention and nature's own aids to health, air, water, light, heat, electricity and a proper diet will be used to restore you.

Our Dining Room

is open to the public. It is conducted on the European plan and is appreciated by many who like a good, wholesome, vegetarian diet.

Girls and College

A college education for women, however dubiously our grandparents may have looked on the need and practicability of such a venture, is accepted by most people today as a matter of course. And if there lingers in the mind of any of us the suspicion that for girls a college education is not all to the good, we may find some assurance to the contrary in the opinions of a woman educator who has made a study of what the college girl of today reads, and who brings from this survey a reassuring message.

The college girl who fell an easy prey to popular authors and matinee idols, who was presented to us on the stage and in novels very much burlesqued as a bundle of giggles wound round with strings of feminine college slang, as incoherent as it was unintelligible, this girl is becoming, if she isn't already, extinct. The girl who has taken her place is one with whom the authors of "best sellers" and heroes of the drama will have to reckon.

"When Lord Dunsany lectures to her," says the author of this analysis of the college girl's reading, "she is not carried away by his poetic presence. Beneath the surface of his flow of words she finds a mixed metaphor, and Dunsany has lost a friend."

Although one may doubt whether the use of a mixed metaphor is a justifiable reason for casting aside the friendship of a lord, the truth of the matter is that along with other things in the world the college girl has greatly changed in her attitude toward education.

A seriousness of purpose has become evident in her work, which, in the opinion of many men on college faculties, was not there before. Not only in the things she reads and what she writes, but in the study courses she selects, does she give evidence of this seriousness of purpose.

Courses in sociology, in political economy, and in business administration appeal strongly to her; and to these she brings a close application to the work in hand, so that in co-educational schools where she competes with boys for scholastic honors the latter find in her a competitor who is not to be taken lightly.

Of course there is nothing strange in this. If the truth were known we probably should find that the boy student, too, has become more serious, and that the college itself has answered the call of the world outside of the college campus and has adjusted itself to meet this more serious demand. But even so it is gratifying to know that the matinee idol-worshipping college girl will soon be only a memory.

BASEBALL MENACED

There is a cancer eating into the heart of baseball, and unless those who are guiding the destinies of the national pastime have vision to perceive this, baseball will decline in popularity as did walking matches, wrestling, racing and boxing. No sport can live with the taint of suspected crookedness, and professional gamblers can not enter into any sport without bringing with them that taint.

For many years base ball has been looked upon as the one wholly clean professional sport. On that record it has thrived until great fortunes have been invested in it and the stands of the major leagues have been filled with men and women who were glad to give their support to it because it was clean.

Now come rumors and charges and counter charges of games being framed at the instigation of gamblers; hand books for betting of all major league games are thriving in every big city in the country. Odds on games are openly posted for the betting public. The other day there were charges made that a Chicago National pitcher was involved in throwing a game with gamblers in on the deal. Two players already have been put under a cloud because of intimacy with gamblers. There are rumors that there was "something funny" about a recent world series. The other day a report was flashed over the country on stock tickers and gambling wires that four of the New York players had been injured or killed in Cleveland. It turns out to have been a gambler's hoax to influence betting odds and make a clean-up.

Base ball magnates, however, always have fought against gambling as the greatest evil of the game. One would hate to believe that prosperity has turned their heads and made them less intolerant of the evil. The leaders of the major leagues owe it to their investments and to the sport itself to begin a campaign against the gamblers.

Some women may want it to appear that they are too young to vote, but it is unlikely any of them will admit that they are too old.

GOPHER PROBLEM

THIS SMALL RODENT DOES IN-CALCULABLE DAMAGE; HOW TO DESTROY HIM

BY ALFRED COOKMAN
Department of Science, Glendale
High School

For several years the writer has made a careful study of the gopher problem in Southern California. So destructive has this rat-like rodent become that every means should be taken to exterminate the species. During the year 1917, while a teacher in the Long Beach High School, department of agriculture, we found the pocket gopher a mighty troublesome pest in the school gardens. Our crops were being destroyed and the financial loss was heavy. The front lawn was in a deplorable condition. The neighbors were complaining. It seemed that the whole city was threatened with the intrusion of a large host of rodent tourists during the early spring.

Several questions were immediately asked, such as: "How can we combat these rodents?" and "Is there no way to get rid of them?"

Pocket gophers infest all the states and territories west of the Mississippi and parts of Illinois, Wisconsin, Florida, Georgia and Alabama. They are found also in Southwestern Canada and over the greater part of Mexico. All the species live underground in ramifying tunnels, and all bring to the surface quantities of earth, which is heaped up in the shape of mounds. The habits of these animals are everywhere much the same.

Throughout their range pocket
gophers are very destructive to crops.
They eat the roots of fruit trees and in this way sometimes ruin whole orchards and groves. They are very fond of the tops of clover and alfalfa. In fact, all grasses, grains and vegetables are destroyed. They are especially harmful to potatoes and other tuberous plants. We are all aware of the destructive program of the gopher in the front lawn. Just when you think that your lawn is growing beautifully and you smile
with satisfaction, then it is that you find on the morrow a great mound of fresh earth piled high near the walk, and in another day some ten feet or more away, there is another mound of dirt indicating that the gopher is still at work in the lawn spreading destruction in each day's program.

The loss due to gophers in the clover and alfalfa sections of the state amounts to thousands of dollars annually. In many of the fertile valleys where they abound the animals are by far the most formidable of the farmer's mammalian enemies. In addition to all this, in the far West (California and Arizona) they burrow in the banks of irrigation ditches, and thus cause extensive breaks, the repair of which necessitates the expenditure of much time and money.
Pocket gophers may be destroyed by poison, by traps, by the use of carbon bi-sulphide, and in the irrigation districts by flooding with water.

Birds plan an important part in the problem of combating these destructive rodents. Hawks and owls are man's friends. The hawk hunts in the day time and the owl at night.
Both wage an incessant warfare on destructive rodents and snakes. The nocturnal warriors do considerable good. The barn owl, screech owl and burrowing owl are continually earning their "weight in gold" in destroying mice, gophers, rats and squirrels.
Of the nineteen species of owls recorded as living within the confines of the state of California, only one species is not protected by law—the Great Horned Owl. The writer has a record of the nesting of an American barn owl, made in Los Angeles County.

"Sixteen mice were carried to the nest in twenty-five minutes, besides three large gophers, a squirrel and a good-sized rat. At the close of the season four cigar boxes of pellets were gathered at the edge of the nest
and sent to the Museum of Vertebrate Zoology, University of California, for examination."

The hawks hunt in the daytime and are called "diurnal warriors of the air." We have twenty-three species of hawks in California. Only three are not protected by law. The Sharp Shinned, Cooper, or "Hen hawk" and the Duck hawk are not protected.
Hawks destroy hundreds of squirrels,
snakes and rodents annually and save the country $1,000,000 every year.
Very few birds are added to their bills of fare.

The most satisfactory method of destroying gophers is the trap method. One must follow this method intelligently and persistently. It is especially adapted to small fields, orchards, gardens and irrigation ditches, where only a few gophers are present; but in the case of large areas that are badly infested, the method involves too much labor. We would recommend the ordinary steel trap No. 1, but there are on the market several special gopher traps which are better adapted for general use. In using the ordinary steel trap, the first step is to make an opening into the main gopher tunnel. Sink the trap out of sight and stake the chain two or three feet away and then cover the opening with grass, clover or alfalfa, or even loose soil. Care must be exercised that these do not clog under the trigger. No bait is required. After each catch scald
the trap to remove the animal odor.

The writer will gladly receive any skins of rodents captured in this lo-

further data on the gopher problem
in Los Angeles County.

An investigation is of no value if the work is not carried out scientifically. Report any serious outbreaks

Taxes: 2500 B. C.—Now

One promptly subscribes to the expression, "God bless the man who invented sleep," but he does not regard with complacency the thought of the man who first invented taxes.
Antiquarians have dug up on the banks of the Euphrates a clay tax receipt said to be 4500 years old.

The fact that the imposition of taxes is an ancient, if not respected, custom does not reconcile present-day contributors to the system to the burdens they feel they are called upon to bear. About the only thing the individual admits without demur
is that taxes are necessary.

There are some persons who profess to take satisfaction in the payment of taxes in their numerous forms, but everybody else knows that such persons are hypocrites of the rankest sort—for how can any person get satisfaction out of dispensing money that is taken from his purse

by due process of law?

About the only thing that can be done to relieve the situation, brought about by the development of civilization, is to make taxes as easy as possible to pay, and sometimes a bit of innocent deception is necessary to convince the taxpayer that he is getting the worth of his money.

While few persons would have difficulty in finding things about which to complain, the business of paying taxes is such a popular cause of complaint that many folks might feel a sense of loss if taxes should be dispensed with. Occasionally, too, a few benefits from taxes can be traced by the person who is not altogether committed to pessimism.

Morocco Thrives

PARIS. (By Mail.)—Two American Red Cross officers, Captains
Robert S. Doman, of Bay City, Mich.,
and Merl LaVoy, of Seattle, Wash., who have returned to Paris after an official tour of Northern Africa give some interesting figures to indicate that Morocco is rapidly gaining in economic importance. From a wild expanse of unproductive country, peopled largely by Arab tribes, in 1912, Morocco has developed in the past seven years into what promises to become a thriving modern commercial and industrial nation doing business on a large scale in all the markets of the world.

Ligue Contre l'Alcool conceive prohibition as applying to brandies and cognac—but not to light wines. Some of the Teutonic representatives except beer and several Scandinavians favor the "Bratt system"—consisting in a "liquor card" system and licensing drinking clubs.

A remarkable attendance is scheduled at this year's congress, countries and delegates being generally anxious to secure data as to the success of complete prohibition here.

Although the congress is expected to give a great impetus to the anti-alcoholic campaign throughout the world, no definite organization to secure world-wide prohibition will be formed here. In addition to the varying views of the members, the congress regards prohibition as a purely national problem.

call attention to the predominance in the membership of independent scientists, economists and sociologists of repute, and the comparative absence of clergymen and so-called professional "temperance advocates."

The Fifteenth Congress is a postponement of one prevented by the outbreak of the World War in 1914.

Since then temperance victories have been gained, notably the "18th amendment" in the United States; various "war prohibition" enactments in European countries; complete prohibition in Finland, 1919; local option granted in Denmark and Scotland; "light wines only" prohibition in Norway, 1919, and establishment of the "Bratt system" in Sweden.

Since the last congress several new countries have come into being as a result of the war. Practically all have representation in the congress.

In spite of the fact that we are still technically at war with Germany and Austria, these latter countries will have several representatives at the Washington congress.
